COURT'S CHARGE ON PUNISHMENT

MEMBERS OF THE JURY:

You have found the Defendant guilty of the offense of capital murder. You are instructed that the Defendant shall be punished by confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for Life without parole, or by death. It is necessary now for you to determine, from all the evidence in the case, the answers to certain Special Issues which are as follows:

SPECIAL ISSUE NO. 1

Whether there is a probability that the Defendant would commit criminal acts of violence that would constitute a continuing threat to society.

You shall answer Special Issue Number 1 "Yes" or "No".

The prosecution has the burden of proving that the answer to Special Issue Number 1 should be "Yes", and it must do so by proving a "Yes" answer to Special Issue Number 1 beyond a reasonable doubt, and if it failed to do so, you must answer Special Issue Number 1 "No".

In deliberating on Special Issue Number 1, the jury shall consider all evidence admitted at the guilt or innocence stage and the punishment stage, including evidence of the defendant's background or character of the circumstances of the offense that militates for or mitigates against the imposition of the death penalty.

You may not answer Special Issue Number 1 "Yes" unless you agree unanimously.

You may not answer Special Issue Number 1 "No" unless ten (10) or more jurors agree.

Members of the jury need not agree on what particular evidence supports a negative answer to Special Issue Number 1.

If the jury answers Special Issue Number 1 “Yes”, then you shall answer the following Special Issue Number 2; otherwise, do not answer Special Issue Number 2.

SPECIAL ISSUE NO. 2

Whether, taking into consideration all of the evidence, including the circumstances of the offense, the Defendant’s character and background, and the personal moral culpability of the defendant, there is a sufficient mitigating circumstance or circumstances to warrant that a sentence of life imprisonment without parole rather than a death sentence be imposed.

You are instructed that if a jury answers that circumstance or circumstances warrant that a sentence of life imprisonment without parole rather than a death sentence be imposed, the Court will sentence the Defendant to imprisonment in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for life without parole.

Under the law applicable in this case, if the Defendant is sentenced to confinement for life without parole in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, the defendant will be ineligible for release from the department on parole.

You shall answer Special Issue No. 2 “Yes” or “No”.

You are instructed that you may not answer Special Issue Number 2 “No” unless you agree unanimously.

You may not answer Special Issue Number 2 “Yes” unless then (10) or more jurors agree.

Members of the jury need not agree on what particular evidence supports an affirmative finding on Special Issue Number 2.

In deliberating on Special Issue Number 2, you shall consider mitigating evidence to be evidence that a juror might regard as reducing the defendant’s moral blameworthiness.

If the jury returns an affirmative finding on Special Issue Number 1, and a negative finding on Special issue Number 2, the Court shall sentence the defendant to death. If the jury returns a negative finding on Special Issue Number 1 or an affirmative finding to Special Issue Number 2, the Court shall sentence the Defendant to confinement in the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice for Life without parole.

You are the exclusive judges of the facts proven, of the credibility of the witnesses, and of the weight to be given their testimony, but you are bound to receive the law from the Court which is herein given and be governed thereby.
