Re: Resignation - supplemental affidavit

Dear Ms. Stacey:

In reply to your letter of July 6, 2000 letter, I, Joseph R. Cooney, being duly sworn state the following to be true, correct and complete:

1. Thank you for such a quick response;
2. I regret the incompleteness of my prior affidavit;
3. I am not now the subject of any disciplinary activity before any State or Federal Bar of which I am or have been a member. Nor have I been the subject of any disciplinary action ever anywhere. There are not now nor ever have been any allegations of professional misconduct made against me.
4. I am not resigning from the State Bar of Texas to avoid any disciplinary action in Texas or elsewhere.
5. I am retaining my active membership (#71944) in the Bar of the District of Columbia, the jurisdiction to which I was first admitted in 1969, so that I can continue my work in legal aide during the years I have left. I am currently working at University Legal Services, 300 I Street, Suite 200, Washington, D.C. 20002 the public interest law firm I founded when I left law school.

I hope that this sworn letter completes my resignation from the Bar of the State of Texas. If not, I know you will point me towards whatever steps are necessary to accomplish that goal.

Please accept my best wishes and regards.

Sincerely,

Joseph R. Cooney

Re: Resignation from the Bar of Texas

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

In reply to your response to my June 14th letter of resignation, I, Joseph R. Cooney, being duly sworn state the following to be true and correct:

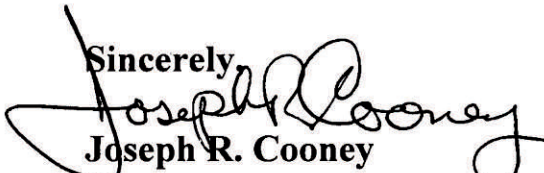

1. I have searched my possessions and have not found any bar card for my membership in the Texas Bar; hence, I have none to surrender;
2. I have attached hereto the formal Texas license with seal issued to me on November 7, 1980.

I trust that this sworn letter with the accompanying document completes my resignation from the Bar of the State of Texas. If not, please notify me of any other steps necessary to accomplish that goal.

As previously stated, I have been blessed with 67 years of life; God willing, I may have a few more. However, I do not foresee practicing again in Texas. When I resided there, it was certainly overall a worthwhile experience.

No doubt you will notify me of my attainment of that higher sphere of accomplishment - retirement from practice of law in Texas. Please accept my best wishes and regards.

Sincerely,

Joseph R. Cooney

Re: Resignation from the Bar of Texas

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen:

May this letter serve as my resignation from the Bar of the State of Texas. I have been blessed with 67 years of life; God willing, I may have several years more. However, I do not foresee practicing again in Texas. When I resided there, it was certainly overall a worthwhile experience. So you may record me as retired from practice in Texas.

You need not send me the Bar Journal, the IOLTA statement or other materials. Please send a copy of this letter to other appropriate data banks of the Texas Bar if necessary to discontinue the flow of materials. Notify me if this letter is not sufficient to accomplish its stated purpose.

Please accept my best wishes and regards.

Sincerely,

Joseph R. Cooney
