Dear Sirs and Mesdames:

I received your letter dated June 17, 1998, describing the further steps I must take to withdraw my membership in the the State Bar of Texas.

I have enclosed the sworn statements you request.

As to the one regarding indicia of membership, when I received your letter I had already destroyed my bar certificate. I had no further use for it, and I needed the frame it was in. Accordingly, I do not have it to surrender. After some searching, however, I was able to locate my plastic "inactive" membership card. It is enclosed, cut up.

I hope that this shall suffice, as it is all I can do.

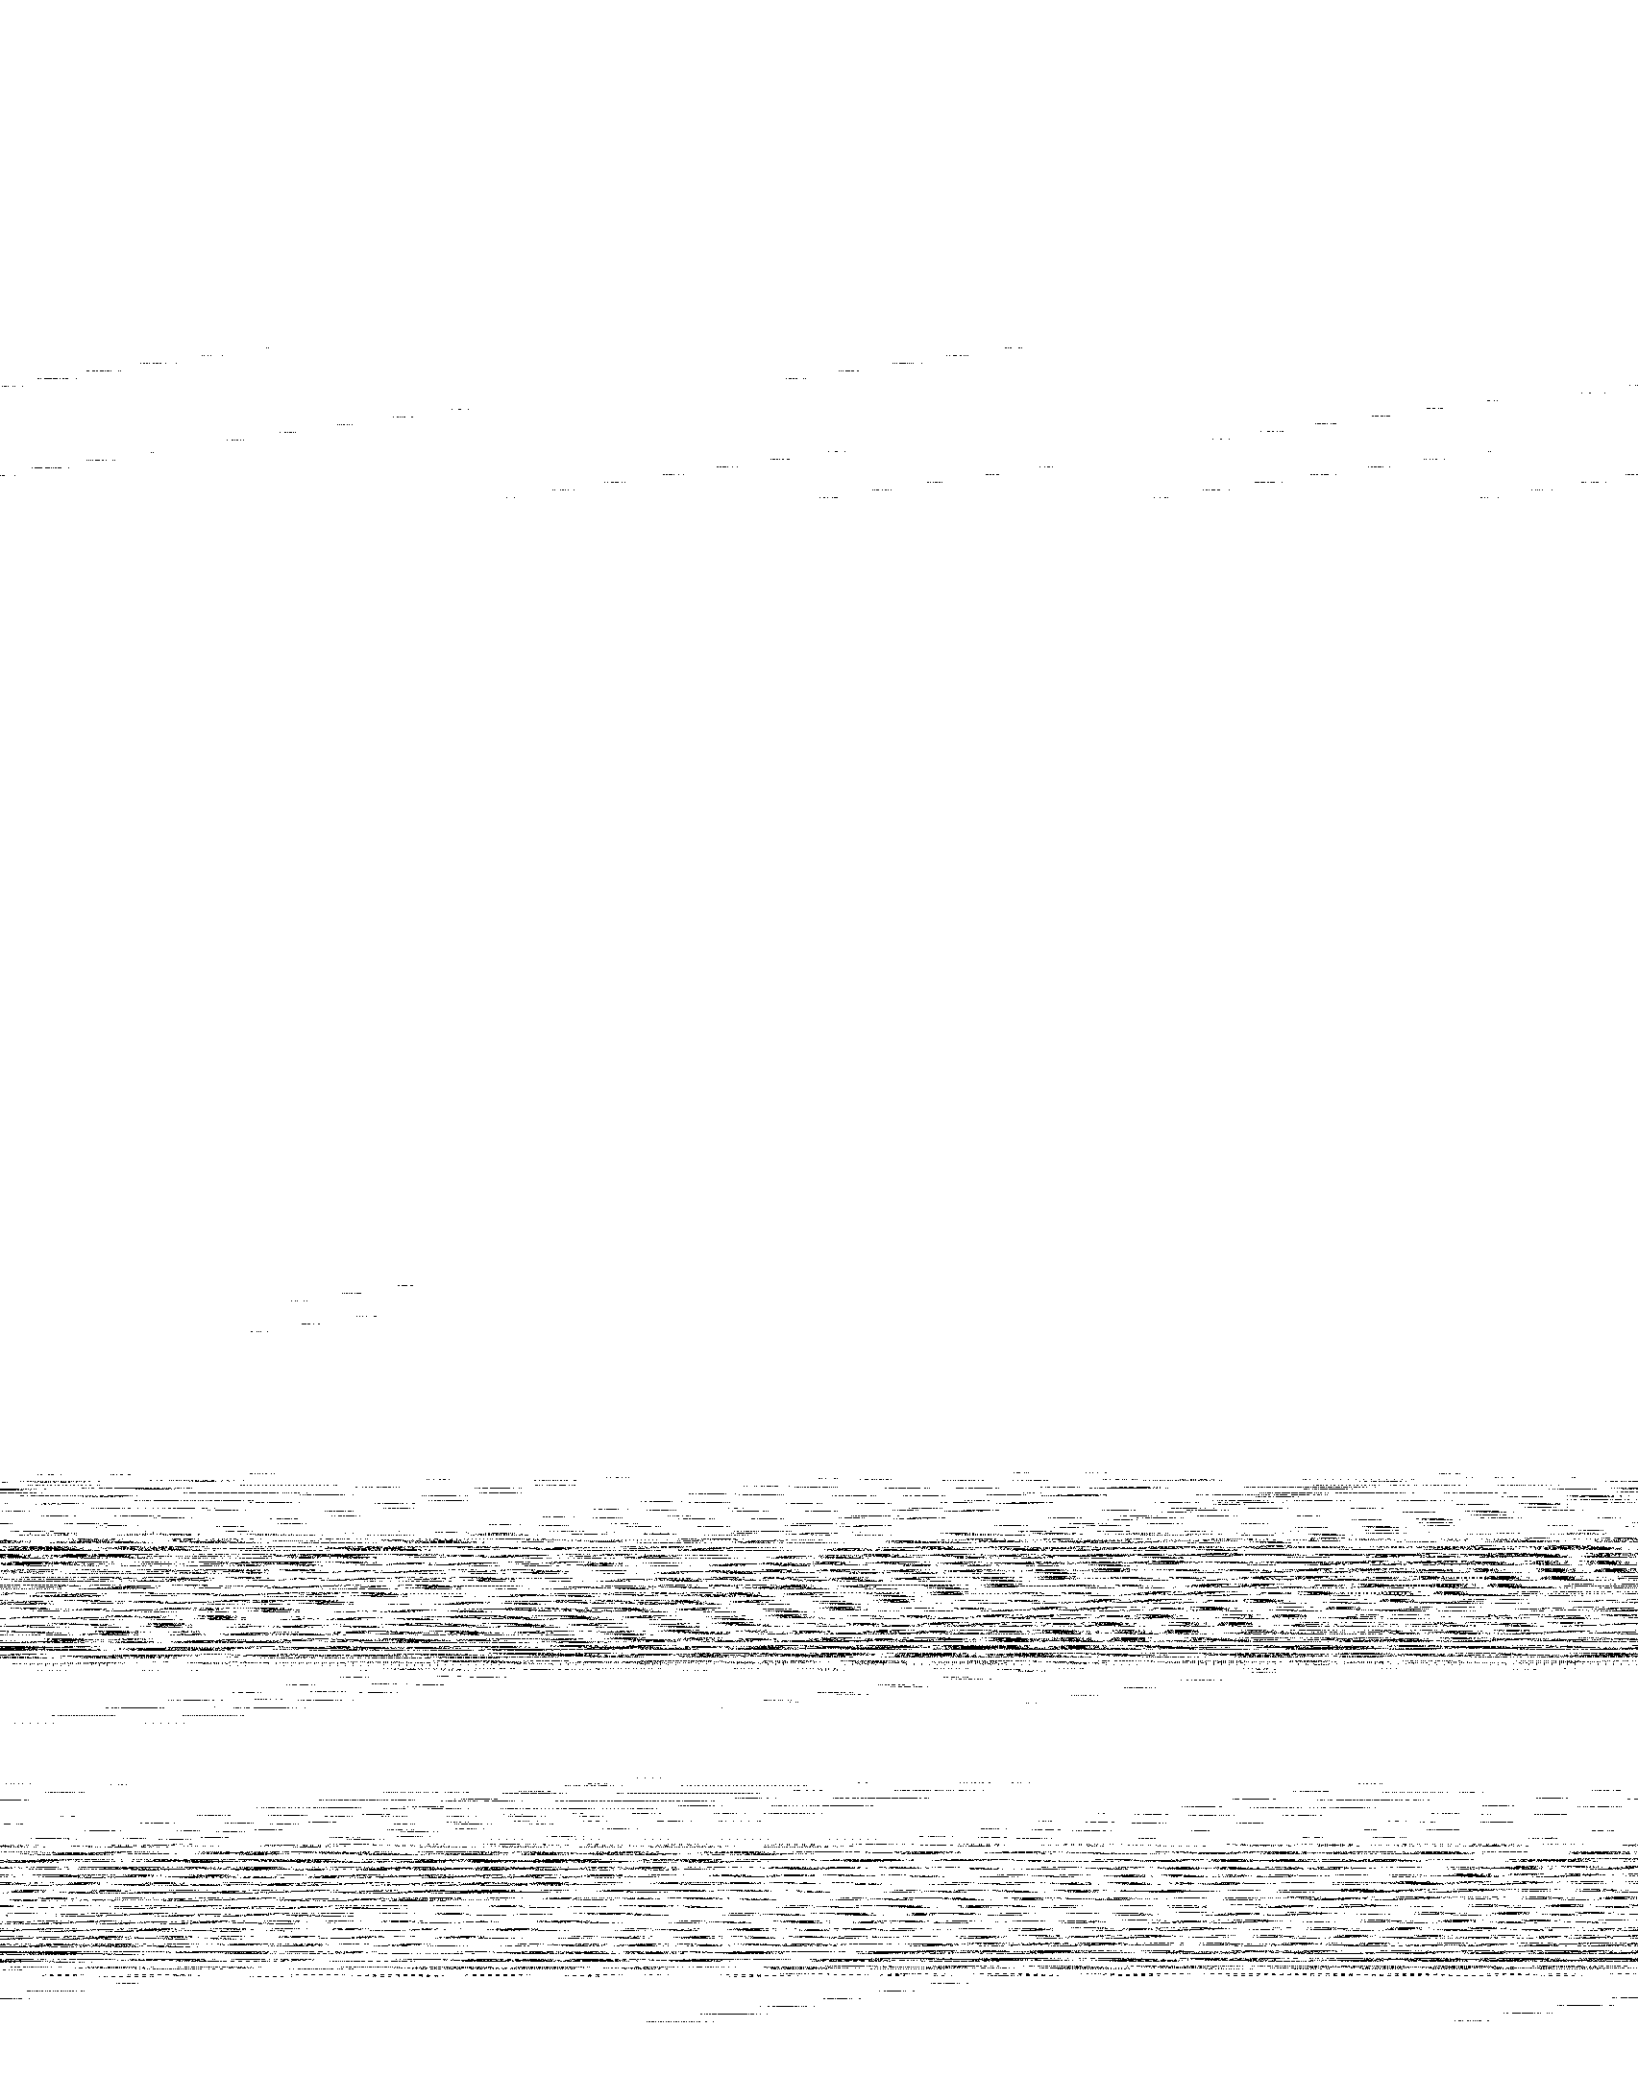

Sincerely,

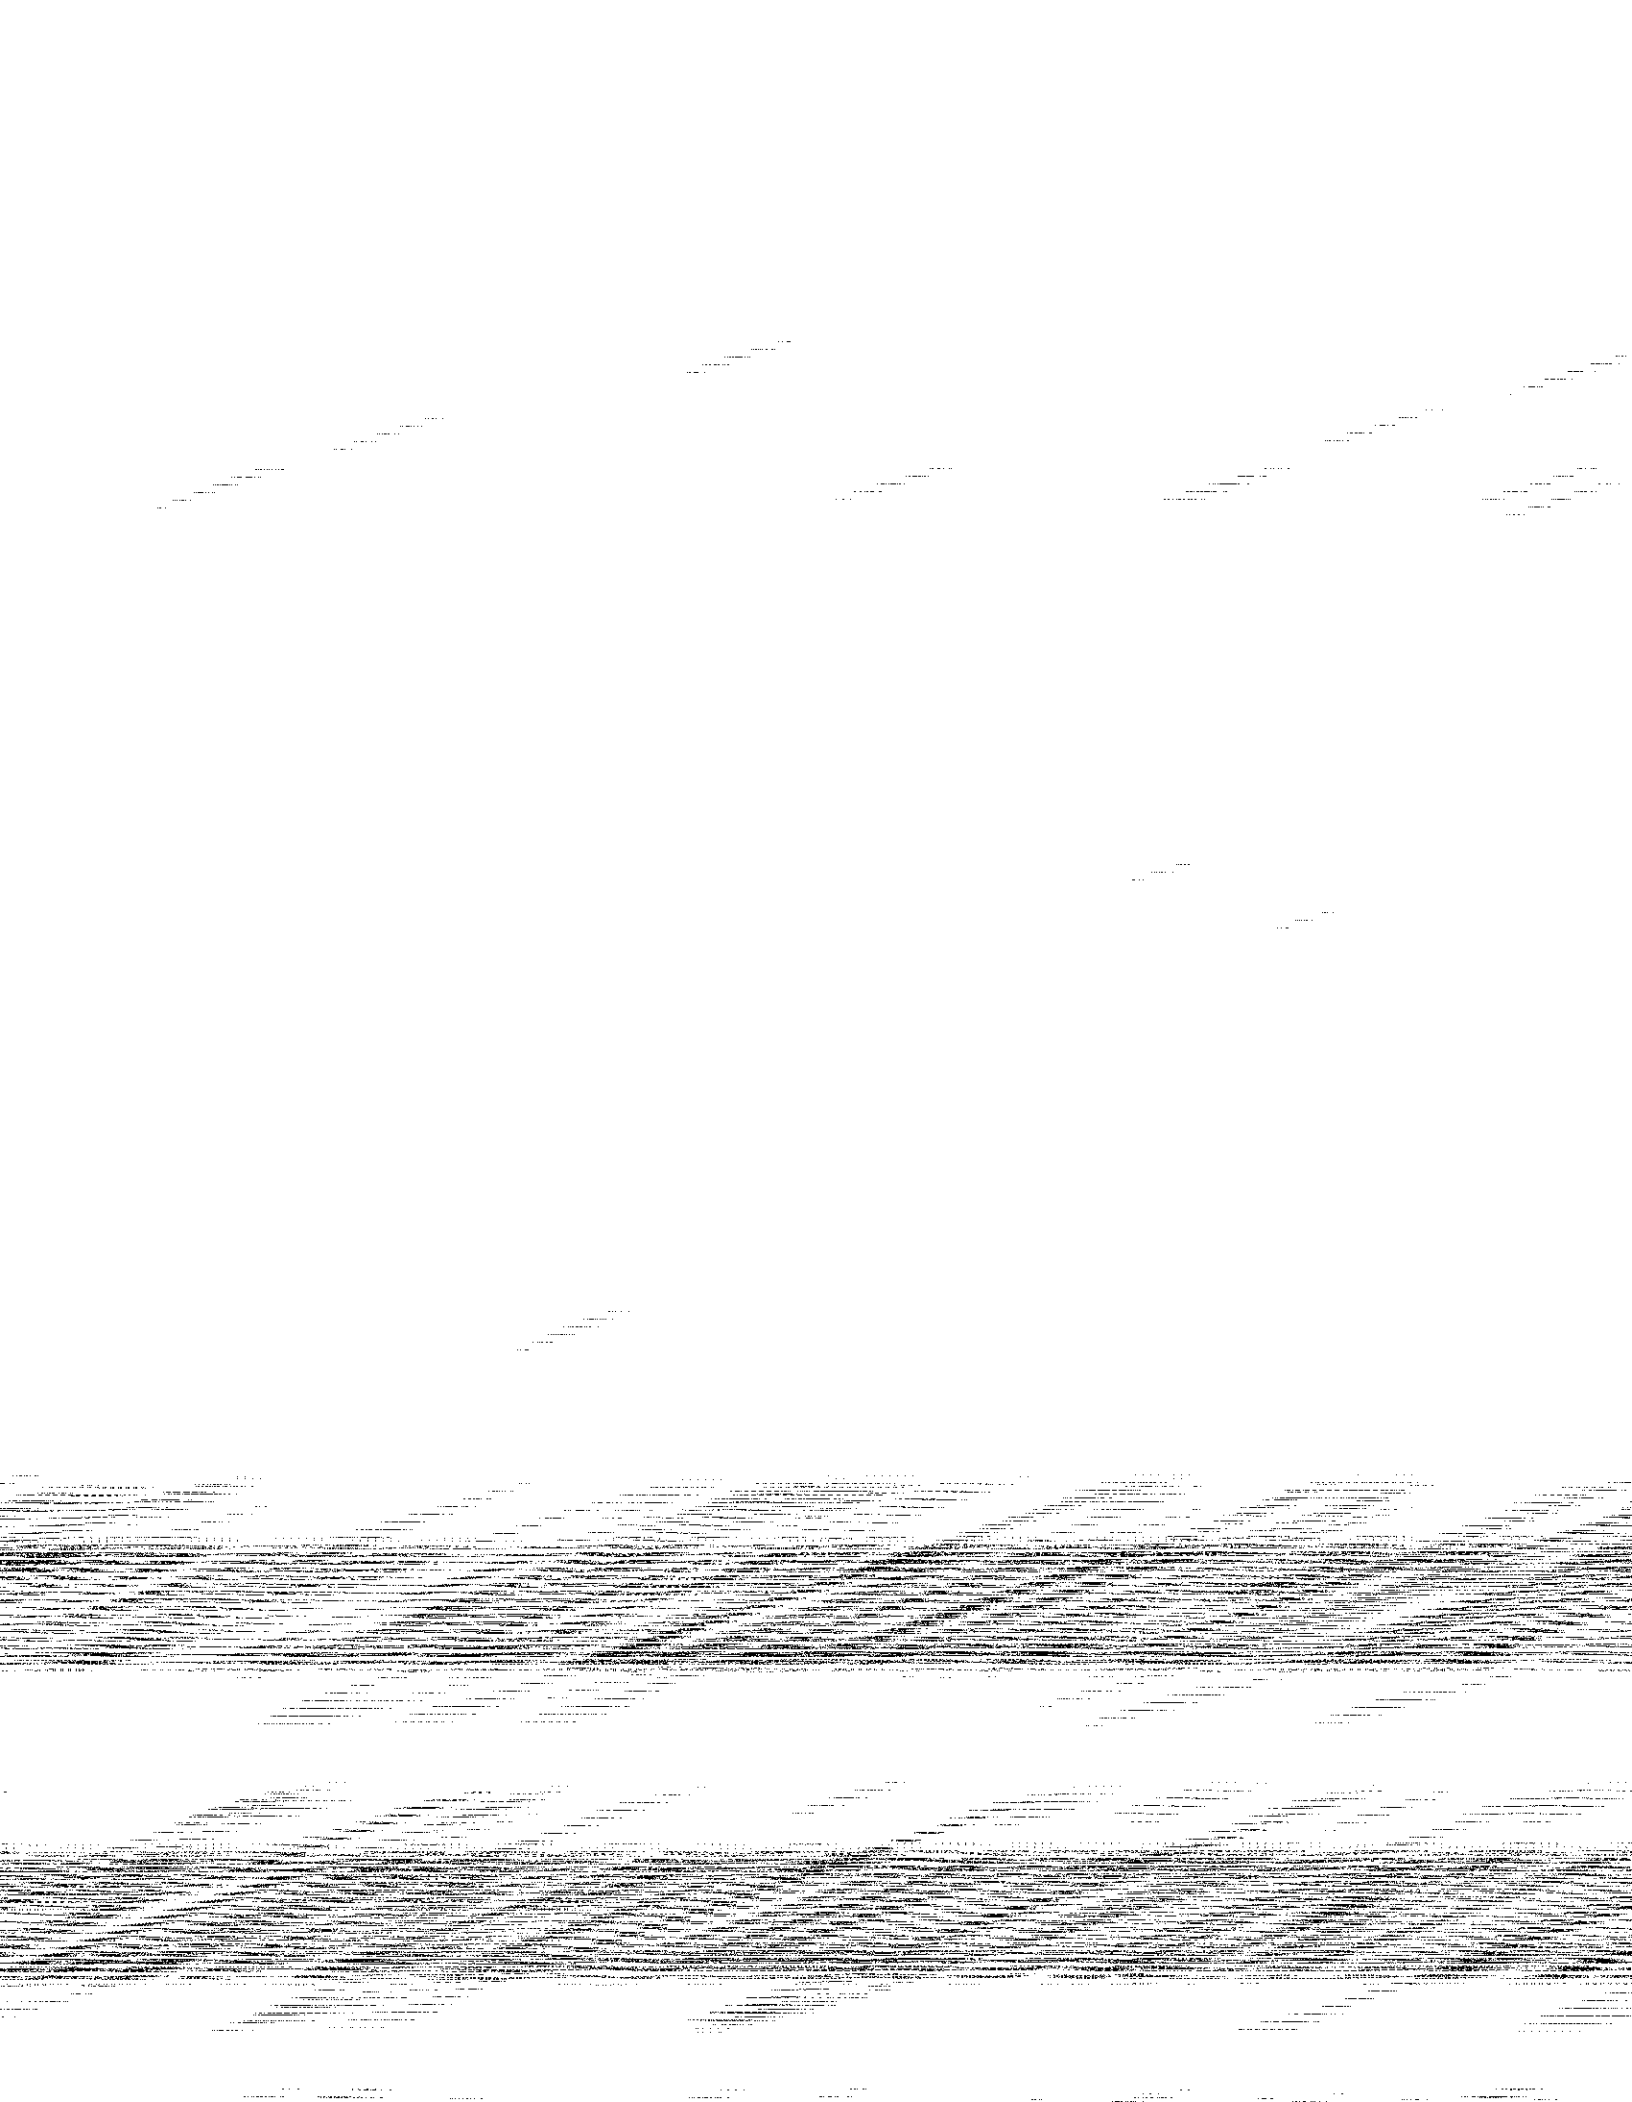

ROBERT A. WEPPNER

Dear Attorney:

The Supreme Court of Texas requires all members wishing to voluntarily resign from the State Bar of Texas to surrender all Bar cards, all Law Licenses, all certificates issued to you by the Supreme Court, and submit a sworn affidavit stating:

"I (the resigning member) have surrendered all Bar Cards, all Law Licenses, and all certificates issued to me by the Supreme Court of Texas."

This requirement is in addition to the notarized affidavit to be submitted by the resigning member pursuant to Article III, Section 6(A) of the State Bar Rules stating that the purpose in resigning is not to avoid disciplinary action and that there is no knowledge of any unresolved allegations of professional misconduct.

Please be advised that until such time as you comply with the requirements set forth herein you will continue to be shown on the membership rolls as an active member who must comply with the payment of Bar dues and the performance of continuing legal education mandated by the State Bar Act. This means that you would be subject to administrative suspension for any subsequent failure to pay Bar dues and/or failure to perform minimum continuing legal education.

If you are currently on the inactive rolls, you do not have to comply with the continuing legal education requirements; however, you are required to pay $50 annually to remain in good standing.

Please send the affidavits, cards, licenses, and certificates to my attention at the address listed below. I will forward them to the Supreme Court with the other necessary documents.

Sincerely,

STATE BAR OF TEXAS

Ms. Hampton,

In response to your letter, I am enclosing the documents requested. Thanks for the detailed information in your letter for it never occurred to me that such would be necessary. In retrospect I understand. If there is anything else outstanding, please advise me as soon as possible for I am leaving for Europe mid June for a month.

Again, thank you for the letter.

Yours truly,

Henry D. Angus
