CAUSE NO. 1364839

THE STATE OF TEXAS	§	IN THE 337TH DISTRICT COURT
VS.	§	OF HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS
ROGELIO AVILES-BARROSO	§	JANUARY TERM, A. D., 2014

Members of the Jury:

The defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, stands charged by indictment with the offense of capital murder, alleged to have been committed on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas. The defendant has pleaded not guilty.

A person commits the offense of murder if he:

- (1) intentionally or knowingly causes the death of an individual; or
- (2) intends to cause serious bodily injury and intentionally or knowingly commits an act clearly dangerous to human life that causes the death of an individual.

A person commits the offense of capital murder if he intentionally commits murder, as hereinbefore defined in paragraph (1), and the person intentionally commits the murder in the course of committing or attempting to commit the offense of kidnapping or the offense of burglary of a building.

Kidnapping and burglary of a building are felony offenses.

"In the course of committing" means conduct that occurs in an attempt to commit, during the commission, or in the immediate flight after the attempt or commission of an offense.

A person commits the offense of kidnapping if he intentionally or knowingly abducts another person.

The term "abduct" means to restrain a person with intent to prevent his liberation by:

- (A) secreting or holding him in a place where he is not likely to be found; or
- (B) using or threatening to use deadly force.

The term "restrain" means to restrict a person's movements without consent, so as to interfere substantially with his liberty, by moving him from one place to another or by confining him.

Restraint is "without consent" if it is accomplished by force, intimidation, or deception.

"Consent" means assent in fact, whether express or apparent.

"Deadly force" means force that is intended or known by the person acting to cause, or in the manner of its use or intended use is capable of causing, death or serious bodily injury.

A person commits the offense of burglary if, without the effective consent of the owner, he:

- (1) enters a building or any portion of a building not then open to the public, with intent to commit a felony or theft;
- (2) remains concealed, with intent to commit a felony or theft, in a building; or
- (3) enters a building and commits or attempts to commit a felony or theft.

"Attempt" to commit an offense occurs if, with specific intent to commit an offense, a person does an act amounting to more than mere preparation that tends, but fails, to effect the commission of the offense intended.

"Enter" means to intrude any part of the body, or any physical object connected to the body.

"Building" means any enclosed structure intended for use or occupation as a habitation or for some purpose of trade, manufacture, ornament, or use.

"Theft" is the unlawful appropriation of property with intent to deprive the owner of said property and without the owner's effective consent.

"Appropriate" and "appropriation" means to acquire or otherwise exercise control over property other than real property. Appropriation of property is unlawful if it is without the owner's effective consent.

"Property" means tangible or intangible personal property, or a document, including money, that represents or embodies anything of value.

"Deprive" means to withhold property from the owner permanently or for so extended a period of time that a major portion of the value or enjoyment of the property is lost to the owner.

"Effective consent" means assent in fact, whether express or apparent, and includes consent by a person legally authorized to act for the owner. Consent is not effective if induced by force, threats, deception or coercion.

"Owner" means a person who has title to the property, possession of the property, whether lawful or not, or a greater right to possession of the property than the defendant.

"Possession" means actual care, custody, control, or management of the property.

"Bodily injury" means physical pain, illness, or any impairment of physical condition.

"Serious bodily injury" means bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes death, serious permanent disfigurement, or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ.

The definition of intentionally relative to the offense of capital murder is as follows:

A person acts intentionally, or with intent, with respect to a result of his conduct when it is his conscious objective or desire to cause the result.

The definitions of intentionally and knowingly relative to the offense of murder are as follow:

A person acts intentionally, or with intent, with respect to a result of his conduct when it is his conscious objective or desire to cause the result.

A person acts knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to a result of his conduct when he is aware that his conduct is reasonably certain to cause the result.

The definitions of intentionally and knowingly relative to the offense of kidnapping are as follow:

A person acts intentionally, or with intent, with respect to the nature of his conduct or to a result of his conduct when it is his conscious objective or desire to engage in the conduct or cause the result.

A person acts knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to the nature of his conduct or to circumstances surrounding his conduct when he is aware of the nature of his conduct or that the circumstances exist. A person acts knowingly, or with knowledge, with respect to a result of his conduct when he is aware that his conduct is reasonably certain to cause the result.

The definition of intentionally relative to the offense of burglary of a building is as follows:

A person acts intentionally, or with intent, with respect to the nature of his conduct or to a result of his conduct when it is his conscious objective or desire to engage in the conduct or cause the result.

All persons are parties to an offense who are guilty of acting together in the commission of the offense. A person is criminally responsible as a party to an offense if the offense is committed by his own conduct, by the conduct of another for which he is criminally responsible, or by both.

A person is criminally responsible for an offense committed by the conduct of another if, acting with intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, he solicits, encourages, directs, aids, or attempts to aid the other person to commit the offense. Mere presence alone will not constitute one a party to an offense.

If, in the attempt to carry out a conspiracy to commit one felony, another felony is committed by one of the conspirators, all conspirators are guilty of the felony actually committed, though having no intent to commit it, if the offense was committed in furtherance of the unlawful purpose and was one that should have been anticipated as a result of the carrying out of the conspiracy.

By the term "conspiracy" as used in these instructions, is meant an agreement between two or more persons with intent, that they, or one or more of them, engage in conduct that would constitute the offense. An agreement constituting a conspiracy may be inferred from acts of the parties.

Before you would be warranted in finding the defendant guilty of capital murder, you must find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt not only that on the occasion in question the defendant was in the course of committing or attempting to commit the felony offense of kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., as alleged in this charge, but also that the defendant specifically intended to cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr., by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr., with a sharp instrument; or by an unknown manner or means; or you must find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist in the commission of the offense of kidnapping, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided, or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo

Martinez Santana in stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr.; or by an unknown manner or means, if he did, with the intention of thereby killing Angelo Garcia Jr.; or you must find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on the occasion in question the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, entered into an agreement with Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the felony offense of kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., as alleged in this charge, and pursuant to that agreement they did carry out their conspiracy, and while in the course of committing said conspiracy, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana intentionally caused the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument; or by an unknown manner or means, and the murder of Angelo Garcia Jr. was committed in furtherance of the conspiracy and was an offense that should have been anticipated by the defendant as a result of carrying out the conspiracy; or

You must find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt not only that on the occasion in question the defendant was in the course of committing or attempting to commit the felony offense of burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, as alleged in this charge, but also that the defendant specifically intended to cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr., by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr., with a sharp instrument; or by an unknown manner or means; or you must find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist in the commission of the offense of burglary of a building, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided, or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana in stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr.; or by an unknown manner or means, if he did, with the intention of thereby killing Angelo Garcia Jr.; or you must find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on the occasion in question the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, entered into an agreement with Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the felony offense of burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, as alleged in this charge, and pursuant to that agreement they did carry out their conspiracy, and while in the course of committing said conspiracy, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana intentionally caused the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument; or by an unknown manner or means, and the murder of Angelo Garcia Jr. was committed in furtherance of the conspiracy and was an offense that should have been anticipated by the defendant as a result of carrying out the conspiracy, and unless you so find, then you cannot convict the defendant of the offense of capital murder.

Now, if you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, did then and there unlawfully, while in the course of committing or attempting to commit the kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., intentionally cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana, did then and there unlawfully, while in the course of committing or attempting to commit the kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., intentionally cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument, and that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the offense, if he did; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, and Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana entered into an agreement to commit the felony offense of kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., and pursuant to that agreement, if any, they did carry out their conspiracy and that in Harris County, Texas, on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, while in the course of committing such kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana intentionally caused the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument, and the murder of Angelo Garcia Jr. was committed in furtherance of the conspiracy and was an offense that should have been anticipated by the defendant as a result of carrying out the conspiracy; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, did then and there unlawfully while in the course of committing or attempting to commit the kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., intentionally cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by an unknown manner or means; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana, did then and there unlawfully while in the course of committing or attempting to commit the kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., intentionally cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by an unknown manner or means, and that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the offense, if he did; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, and Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana entered into an agreement to commit the felony offense of kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., and pursuant to that agreement, if any, they did carry out their conspiracy and that in Harris County, Texas, on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, while in the course of committing such kidnapping of Angelo Garcia Jr., Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana intentionally caused the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by an unknown manner or means, and the murder of Angelo Garcia Jr. was committed in furtherance of the conspiracy and was an offense that should have been anticipated by the defendant as a result of carrying out the conspiracy; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, did then and there unlawfully while in the course of committing or attempting to commit the burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, intentionally cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana, did then and there unlawfully while in the course of committing or attempting to commit the burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, intentionally cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument, and that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the offense, if he did; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, and Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana entered into an agreement to commit the felony offense of burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, and pursuant to that agreement, if any, they did carry out their conspiracy and that in Harris County, Texas, on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, while in the course of committing such burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana intentionally caused the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument, and the murder of Angelo Garcia Jr. was committed in furtherance of the conspiracy and was an offense that should have been anticipated by the defendant as a result of carrying out the conspiracy; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, did then and there unlawfully while in the course of committing or attempting to commit the burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, intentionally cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by an unknown manner or means; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana, did then and there unlawfully while in the course of committing or attempting to commit the burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, intentionally cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by an unknown manner or means, and that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the offense, if he did; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, and Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana entered into an agreement to commit the felony offense of burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, and pursuant to that agreement, if any, they did carry out their conspiracy and that in Harris County, Texas, on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, while in the course of committing such burglary of a building owned by Diana Garcia, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana intentionally caused the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by an unknown manner or means, and the murder of Angelo Garcia Jr. was committed in furtherance of the conspiracy and was an offense that should have been anticipated by the defendant as a result of carrying out the conspiracy, then you will find the defendant guilty of capital murder, as charged in the indictment.

Unless you so find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt, or if you have a reasonable doubt thereof, or if you are unable to agree, you will next consider whether the defendant is guilty of the lesser offense of murder:

Therefore, if you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, did then and there unlawfully, intentionally or knowingly cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr., by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County,

Texas, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana, did then and there unlawfully, intentionally or knowingly cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr., by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument, and that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the offense, if he did; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, did then and there unlawfully intend to cause serious bodily injury to Angelo Garcia Jr., and did cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by intentionally or knowingly committing an act clearly dangerous to human life, namely by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana, did then and there unlawfully intend to cause serious bodily injury to Angelo Garcia Jr., and did cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by intentionally or knowingly committing an act clearly dangerous to human life, namely by stabbing Angelo Garcia Jr. with a sharp instrument, and that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the offense, if he did; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, did then and there unlawfully, intentionally or knowingly cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr., by an unknown manner or means; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana, did then and there unlawfully, intentionally or knowingly cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr., by an unknown manner or means, and that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the offense, if he did; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, did then and there unlawfully intend to cause serious bodily injury to Angelo Garcia Jr., and did cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by intentionally or knowingly committing an act clearly dangerous to human life, namely by an unknown manner or means; or

If you find from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that on or about the 30th day of September, 1992, in Harris County, Texas, Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana, did

then and there unlawfully intend to cause serious bodily injury to Angelo Garcia Jr., and did cause the death of Angelo Garcia Jr. by intentionally or knowingly committing an act clearly dangerous to human life, namely by an unknown manner or means, and that the defendant, Rogelio Aviles-Barroso, with the intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, if any, solicited, encouraged, directed, aided or attempted to aid Obel Cruz-Garcia and/or Carmelo Martinez Santana to commit the offense, if he did, then you will find the defendant guilty of murder.

If you believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty of either capital murder on the one hand or murder on the other hand, but you have a reasonable doubt as to which of said offenses he is guilty, then you must resolve that doubt in the defendant's favor and find him guilty of the lesser offense of murder.

If you have a reasonable doubt as to whether the defendant is guilty of any offense defined in this charge you will acquit the defendant and say by your verdict "Not Guilty."

An accomplice, as the term is here used, means anyone connected with the crime charged, as a party thereto, and includes all persons who are connected with the crime by unlawful act on their part transpiring either before or during the time of the commission of the offense, and whether or not they were present and participated in the commission of the crime. A person is criminally responsible as a party to an offense if the offense is committed by his own conduct, by the conduct of another for which he is criminally responsible or by both. Mere presence alone, however, will not constitute one a party to an offense.

A person is criminally responsible for an offense committed by the conduct of another if, acting with intent to promote or assist the commission of the offense, he solicits, encourages, directs, aids, or attempts to aid the other person to commit the offense. The term "conduct" means any act and its accompanying mental state.

You are instructed that a conviction cannot be had upon the testimony of an accomplice unless the accomplice's testimony is corroborated by other evidence tending to connect the defendant with the offense charged, and the corroboration is not sufficient if it merely shows the commission of the offense, but it must tend to connect the defendant with its commission.

The witness, Carmelo Martinez Santana, is an accomplice, if an offense was committed, and you cannot convict the defendant upon his testimony unless you further believe that there is other evidence in the case, outside of the testimony of Carmelo

Martinez Santana tending to connect the defendant with the offense committed, if you find that an offense was committed, and the corroboration is not sufficient if it merely shows the commission of the offense, but it must tend to connect the defendant with its commission, and then from all of the evidence you must believe beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty of the offense charged against him.

In a prosecution in which an actor's criminal responsibility is based on the conduct of another, the actor may be convicted on proof of commission of the offense and that he was a party to its commission, and it is no defense: that the person for whose conduct the actor is criminally responsible has been acquitted, has not been prosecuted or convicted, has been convicted of a different offense or of a different type or class of offense, or is immune from prosecution.

Our law provides that a defendant may testify in his own behalf if he elects to do so. This, however, is a right accorded a defendant, and in the event he elects not to testify, that fact cannot be taken as a circumstance against him.

In this case, the defendant has elected not to testify and you are instructed that you cannot and must not refer to or allude to that fact throughout your deliberations or take it into consideration for any purpose whatsoever as a circumstance against him.

You are further instructed that any evidence that any witness has been convicted in any case or cases was admitted before you for the purpose of aiding you, if it does aid you, in passing upon the credibility of the witness and the weight to be given his or her testimony, and you will not consider the same for any other purpose.

A Grand Jury indictment is the means whereby a defendant is brought to trial in a felony prosecution. It is not evidence of guilt nor can it be considered by you in passing upon the question of guilt of the defendant. The burden of proof in all criminal cases rests upon the State throughout the trial and never shifts to the defendant.

All persons are presumed to be innocent and no person may be convicted of an offense unless each element of the offense is proved beyond a reasonable doubt. The fact that he has been arrested, confined, or indicted for, or otherwise charged with the offense gives rise to no inference of guilt at his trial. The law does not require a defendant to prove his innocence or produce any evidence at all. The presumption of innocence alone is sufficient to acquit the defendant, unless the jurors are satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt of the defendant's guilt after careful and impartial consideration of all the evidence in the case.

The prosecution has the burden of proving the defendant guilty and it must do so by proving each and every element of the offense charged beyond a reasonable doubt and if it fails to do so, you must acquit the defendant.

It is not required that the prosecution prove guilt beyond all possible doubt; it is required that the prosecution's proof excludes all reasonable doubt concerning the defendant's guilt.

In the event you have a reasonable doubt as to the defendant's guilt after considering all the evidence before you, and these instructions, you will acquit him and say by your verdict "Not Guilty."

You are the exclusive judges of the facts proved, of the credibility of the witnesses and the weight to be given their testimony, but the law you shall receive in these written instructions, and you must be governed thereby.

After you retire to the jury room, you should select one of your members as your Foreman. It is his or her duty to preside at your deliberations, vote with you, and when you have unanimously agreed upon a verdict, to certify to your verdict by using the appropriate form attached hereto and signing the same as Foreman.

During your deliberations in this case, you must not consider, discuss, nor relate any matters not in evidence before you. You should not consider nor mention any personal knowledge or information you may have about any fact or person connected with this case which is not shown by the evidence.

No one has any authority to communicate with you except the officer who has you in charge. After you have retired, you may communicate with this Court in writing through this officer. Any communication relative to the cause must be written, prepared and signed by the Foreman and shall be submitted to the court through this officer. Do not attempt to talk to the officer who has you in charge, or the attorneys, or the Court, or anyone else concerning any questions you may have.

Your sole duty at this time is to determine whether the State has met it's burden of proving the defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt in this cause and restrict your deliberations solely to that issue.

Following the arguments of counsel, you will retire to consider your verdict.
