ORDER

On this day, the Court found the following:

Plaintiff R. Wayne Johnson is a vexatious litigant under TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE Chapter 11. Plaintiff Johnson filed this lawsuit in violation of Chapter 11 and in violation of the multiple court orders finding him to be a vexatious litigant.

Plaintiff Johnson failed to obtain prior permission of the local administrative judge before filing this lawsuit, as required by TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE §11.101(a)(2) and the orders declaring him to be a vexatious litigant.

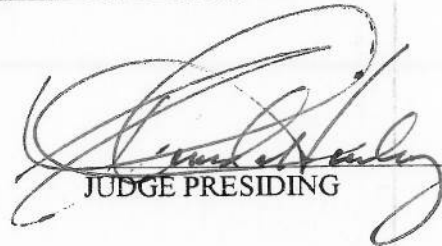

TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE § 11.103(a) states, "A clerk of a court may not file a litigation presented by a vexatious litigant subject to a pre-filing order under Section 11.101, unless the litigant obtains an order from the local administrative judge permitting the filing." TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE § 11.103(b) states, "If the clerk mistakenly files a litigation without an order from the local administrative judge, any party may file with the clerk and serve on the plaintiff and the other parties to the suit a notice stating that the plaintiff is a vexatious litigant subject to a pre-filing order under Section 11.101. On the filing of the notice, the court shall immediately stay the litigation and shall dismiss the litigation unless the plaintiff, not later than the 10th day after the date the notice is filed, obtains an order from the local administrative judge under Section 11.102 permitting the filing of the litigation."

Plaintiff Johnson did not obtain permission from a local administrative judge within ten days of the filing of Notice that Plaintiff is a Vexatious Litigant. Therefore, it is ORDERED that this case is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE, and that Plaintiff shall take nothing by this suit. This is a final order that disposes of this entire case. All relief not specifically granted is denied.

The Court also finds that plaintiff is in violation of Court Orders requiring that he pay sanctions in the amount of $400.00 to the Texas Attorney General's Office as a prerequisite to filing. Thus, it is FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff is held in CONTEMPT OF COURT pursuant to TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE § 11.101(b) and shall be subject to the following penalty :
