ORDER DECLARING JASON PATRICK JONES A VEXATIOUS LITIGANT

On December 17, 2018, the Court conducted a hearing to determine whether Plaintiff Jason Patrick Jones should be declared a vexatious litigant, pursuant to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 11.051, et seq. The hearing was held on the Court's own motion, and plaintiff was duly notified of same but failed to appear. A record was made.

In this case, the defendant has shown that there was no reasonable probability that the plaintiff would prevail. Accordingly, the case was finally dismissed on November 29, 2018.

The Court takes judicial notice that Jason Patrick Jones, in the seven-year period preceding the date of the Court's sua sponte motion, has commenced, prosecuted, or maintained at least five litigations as a pro se litigant other than in small claims court that have been finally determined adversely to Jason Patrick Jones. In addition to this cause, such additional causes include, but are not limited to Cause Nos. DC-18-03971; DC-18-05761; DC-18-06156; DC-18-06438; DC-18-06958; DC-18-07560; DC-18-05690, all in the District Courts of Dallas County, Texas.

Based upon the evidence presented, the Court hereby declares Jason Patrick Jones a vexatious litigant who is subject to a pre-filing order under Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 11.101, and is henceforth prohibited from filing, pro se, new litigation in the Courts of the State of Texas without seeking the permission of the applicable local administrative judge, as provided in Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 11.102.

Failure to comply with this Order may be punished by contempt and this Order is subject to all other lawful means of enforcement.

The Clerk is directed to circulate this Order to its appropriate personnel and to forthwith, and no later than 30 days from the date hereof, provide a copy of this Order to the Office of Court Administration.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Signed this 17th day of December, 2018.
