(b) Suspension Period.

- (1) General Rule. A receiver or officer must not sell the judgment debtor's personal property or distribute proceeds to the judgment creditor within 14 days after service of the documents in (a)(1), or within 17 days if service was by mail.
- (2) No Effect on Noticing Sale. Nothing in this rule prohibits a receiver or officer from noticing the sale of the judgment debtor's personal property during the suspension period if the sale date is after the suspension period's expiration.

(c) Effect of Filing Protected Property Claim Form; Hearing; Exemption Determination.

- (1) Hearing and Suspension Required. If the judgment debtor files a Protected Property Claim Form or another sworn document containing the same information:
 - (a) the court must hold a hearing on the exemption claim; and
 - (b) the receiver or officer must not sell the judgment debtor's personal property or distribute its proceeds to the judgment creditor until the court determines the judgment debtor's exemption claim.
- (2) Hearing Notice. Each party is entitled to reasonable notice of the hearing.
- (3) Burden of Proof. At the hearing, the judgment debtor must prove the exemption claim and the value of the personal property exempt. The judgment debtor may satisfy this burden through a sworn statement if the sworn statement is not challenged. A "sworn" statement is one that is signed before a notary or made under penalty of perjury. A signed Protected Property Claim Form is a "sworn" statement.
- (4) Time for Determining Exemption Claim. The court must determine the judgment debtor's exemption claim within 10 days after the judgment debtor files the exemption claim. The court may extend the time for determining the exemption claim on good cause shown.
- (5) Release of Property. If the court determines that the judgment debtor's personal property is exempt, the court must order its release within three business days.

2022 Comment: Rule 679b is a new rule implementing section 22.0042 of the Texas Government Code, which calls for expedited procedures that allow a judgment debtor to assert an exemption to the seizure of personal property by a judgment creditor or receiver appointed under section 31.002 of the Civil Practice and Remedies Code. Rule 306a, various rules in Part V, Rule 663a, and Rule 664a are also amended to implement section 22.0042 of the Texas Government Code.
