OPINION

This is an appeal from the revocation of Appellant Jerry Wayne Whitener's community supervision and imposition of a ten-year sentence for a conviction of driving while intoxicated. We affirm.

Appellant's appointed counsel on appeal filed a brief in which she concludes that the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. The brief meets the requirements of Anders v. California, 386 U.S. 738, 87 S. Ct. 1396 (1967), presenting a professional evaluation of the record demonstrating why there are no arguable grounds to be advanced. See High v. State, 573 S.W.2d 807 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

A copy of counsel's brief was delivered to appellant. Appellant was advised of the right to examine the appellate record. Appellant filed a pro se brief on October 22, 1999, along with several prior and subsequent written communications containing factual allegations and alleged errors.

We agree the appeal is wholly frivolous and without merit. Further, we find no reversible error in the record. A discussion of appellant's pro se briefings would add nothing to the jurisprudence of the State.

Accordingly, the judgment of the trial court is affirmed.
