

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS

Misc. Docket No. 03- 9057

ORDER

By Miscellaneous Order No. 96-9078, dated March 1, 1996, this Court ordered that all lawyers licensed in the State of Texas on or after July 1, 1996, are required to take the course entitled A Guide to the Basics of Law Practice, sponsored by The Texas Center for Legal Ethics and Professionalism.

That order is amended as follows:

It is further ORDERED that after June 1, 2004, any attorney who has failed to complete this course within the time prescribed will be suspended from the practice of law by order of the Court, subject to being reinstated as of the date of suspension when the Court receives notice from the Center that the attorney has completed the course.

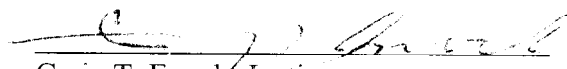

Entered this 21st day of May, 2003.
