Approval of UNT Dallas College of Law
Under the Rules and Regulations Governing the Participation of Qualified Law Students and Qualified Unlicensed Law School Graduates in the Trial of Cases in Texas

The UNT Dallas College of Law has applied for a provisional approval by the American Bar Association, but a decision on provisional accreditation is expected no earlier than the summer of 2016. So that students at UNT Dallas College of Law may participate in clinical and experiential learning programs in the meantime, the Supreme Court of Texas hereby approves UNT Dallas College of Law for the limited purpose of allowing its qualified students and unlicensed graduates to participate in the trial of cases under Rule II of the Rules and Regulations Governing the Participation of Qualified Law Students and Qualified Unlicensed Law School Graduates in the Trial of Cases in Texas.

SIGNED this 15th day of December, 2015.
