

JUDGE BOURESSA'S COURT PROCEDURES

The following procedures are adopted by Judge Bouressa for cases assigned to her in the First Division. These procedures may be modified after March 1, 2025.

I. Case Management

- A. Court Communication. Email is the Court's preferred method of communication (BCDivision1A@txcourts.gov). Please include all parties on court communications, or their attorneys (if represented by counsel).
- B. Scheduling Orders. Use the form attached hereto. If all parties agree on all dates, fill in, sign, and e-file the form for entry by the Court. If all parties do not agree on all dates, indicate each party's preferred deadline in the right-hand box of each relevant section and e-file as a single document without signatures.
 - 1. Bench Trials. Contact the Court for available bench trial dates to include in the scheduling order. A case may be called on the date set, or within 7 days thereafter.
 - 2. Jury Trials. A scheduling order for a jury trial must include a pretrial hearing date and the county where the trial is to be held. A jury date will be set by the Court as soon as possible after the pretrial hearing. Payment of the jury fee must be made at least 90 days before the trial setting, or a new scheduling order for a bench trial will be issued.
- C. Continuances. Continuances of dates selected by the parties are heavily disfavored. Good cause should be shown.

II. Discovery

- A. Written Discovery. Limits on written discovery will be governed by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, the Local Rules of the Texas Business Court, these procedures, and any modifications in Rule 11 agreements filed with the Court.
- B. Discovery Control Plans and ESI Protocols. Parties who cannot reach an agreement on discovery limitations may request a setting for entry of a discovery control plan or ESI protocol; the parties must e-file their competing proposals at least 48 hours in advance of such setting.

- C. Discovery Motions Generally. Discovery motions should include only items on which agreement cannot be reached absent court intervention.
- D. Motions to Compel. No motion to compel written discovery will be considered unless the request and any objection or response are attached to the motion.
 - 1. To the extent practicable, the motion should group requests by similar subject-matter or similar legal objection.
 - 2. Movants should be prepared to identify the element(s) of any claim(s) or defense(s) that will be aided by discovery of the requested information.
- E. Attorney's Fees. Abusive discovery tactics will not be tolerated. Attorney's fees may be awarded against any party engaging in abuse of discovery, even upon the first instance of such conduct being raised.

III. Scheduling Hearings

- A. Settings Not Required. Orders on the following motions may be entered without necessity of a setting, provided that a proposed order is e-filed as a separate document at the same time as the motion:
 - 1. Motions for substitute/alternative service;
 - 2. Motions for default judgment;
 - 3. Motions for admission pro hac vice; and
 - 4. Unopposed motions seeking relief other than continuance of a trial setting.
- B. Settings Required. Opposed motions will not be considered unless set. It is the movant's obligation to obtain a setting.
 - 1. Available dates for both oral hearings and submission can be obtained from the Court Manager.
 - 2. Parties must confer on dates before setting any matter. If agreement cannot be reached, the movant may set the matter, and the non-movant may e-file objections to the movant's requested date. Parties should bring such scheduling disputes to the Court's attention via email so they can be resolved promptly.
 - 3. When conferring on hearing dates, parties must indicate whether they intend to offer live testimony.

- C. Oral Hearings. Unless arranged in advance with the Court, all oral hearings will be held in-person.
 - 1. Notices. The movant is required to file and serve on all parties a notice of oral hearing that sets forth the date and time of the hearing, the location provided by the Court, and an indication of whether the hearing is evidentiary.
 - 2. Citations. Parties should be prepared to provide a citation to any statute, rule, or case referenced during an oral hearing.
- D. Submission. Motions other than discovery motions* may be set for submission without oral argument upon agreement of the parties, unless the Court, in its discretion, requests oral hearing.

*As set forth in II.B., submission settings are available where the sole discovery issue is the entry of a discovery control plan or ESI protocol.

IV. Motion Practice

- A. Responses. Unless otherwise provided by law, responses to motions must be filed no later than 5 days before the motion is set for oral hearing or submission.
- B. Replies. Unless otherwise provided by law, replies in support of motions must be filed no later than 2 days before the motion is set for oral hearing or submission.
- C. Sur-replies. The Court Manager should be notified that a sur-reply has been filed to ensure it is brought to the Court's attention at the time of the setting. Settings will not be delayed to accommodate sur-replies.

V. Case Resolution

- A. Trials. As a general rule, older cases take priority.
 - 1. Trial Time. All trials will be subject to time limitations, to be set at the pretrial hearing. Parties should be prepared to address the time needed for their case calculated in hours.
 - 2. Final Judgment After Bench Trial. Following notification of the Court's rulings, the parties have 30 days to e-file either a single judgment agreed as to form or competing versions for the Court's consideration. The parties may request an oral hearing on the form of the judgment any time before judgment is entered.

3. Final Judgment After Verdict. Upon return of a jury verdict, the parties have 30 days to e-file either a single judgment agreed as to form or competing versions for the Court's consideration. The parties may request an oral hearing on the form of the judgment any time before judgment is entered.
4. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. Within 10 days after any party timely files a request for findings of fact and conclusions of law, proposed findings and conclusions should be sent to the Court in Word version. Parties may but are not required to e-file proposed findings and conclusions.

B. Settlement Announcements.

1. To have a trial setting removed from the Court's docket due to settlement, one of the following must occur:
 - (a) The filing of a non-suit or agreed dismissal signed by each party with pending claims;
 - (b) The filing of an agreed judgment signed by all parties; or
 - (c) The filing of a notice of settlement signed by all parties, and, where a jury demand has been made, a waiver of jury trial by all parties.

Emailed notice is not sufficient.

2. Settled cases will not be held on the Court's docket for more than 90 days. If the parties fail to submit final dispositive orders to the Court within 90 days after announcing settlement, the Court will presume the parties desire entry of a dismissal with prejudice and will enter the same without further notice, unless extended by prior order of the Court.

VI. Written Opinions. Where the issuance of a written opinion is discretionary, parties must request an opinion no later than the first day of the hearing, submission setting, or trial during which the matter is to be decided. Failure to request an opinion timely may result in denial of the request.
