Conducts manual and computer-assisted electronic legal research in analyzing sources such as statutes, judicial decisions, legal articles, treatises, constitutions, legal codes, and rules of procedure. Prepares pre-submission memoranda in civil and criminal appeals and original proceedings. May assist in reviewing pre- and post-submission motions and making recommendations on their disposition, as appropriate. May assist in the initial screening of appeals for jurisdictional deficiencies and procedural compliance. Participate in pre- and post-submission case conferences and orally presents analysis of issues. Attends and evaluates the presentation of oral argument. Reviews current developments in criminal and civil law. Performs administrative duties as assigned. Performs related work as assigned.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Must have graduated from an accredited law school with an L.L.B. or J.D. degree. Must be licensed in the State of Texas or, at a minimum, must be a candidate to sit for the Texas bar examination within six months of hire. Excellent knowledge of the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, The Bluebook, A Uniform System of Citation, and The Greenbook, Texas Rules of Form.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS AND ABILITIES:

Knowledge of legal principles, practices, and proceedings in criminal and/or civil areas; and laws, regulations and rules relating to the Court. Excellent legal research, writing, analytical, and decision-making skills. Skill in using logic and reasoning to identify strengths weaknesses of alternative solutions, conclusions, and approaches to problems. Proficient computer and typing skills; applicable software; applicable legal reference materials. Ability to communicate clearly and effectively, both orally and in written form; and to provide guidance to others.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES:

Applicants must submit: (1) a State Job Application form (see <http://www.twc.state.tx.us>); (2) a writing sample; (3) transcript of grades; and (4) a list of three references via email to Ms. Elizabeth Montoya at Elizabeth.Montoya@txcourts.gov. Applicants are encouraged to submit a cover letter and résumé.

EMPLOYMENT EFFECTIVE:

This is a full-time term position, with an effective start date on upon hire or as otherwise agreed and ending August 31, 2026.
