MONTGOMERY COUNTY, TEXAS

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANTS MOTION TO DISMISS,
DESIGNATING PLAINTIFF AS A VEXATIOUS LITIGANT, AND FINAL JUDGMENT

On this day, the Court considered Defendants Montgomery County, Texas' and James Metts' Motion to Dismiss and Motion to Designate Roy Wayne Jackson, Jr. as a Vexatious Litigant. After considering the motion, the pleadings, and the applicable law, the evidence, and the arguments of counsel and pro se parties, if any, the COURT FINDS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Plaintiff, Roy Wayne Jackson, Jr., failed to comply with the procedural requirements of Chapter 14 of the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code (hereafter referred to as "the Act"). Specifically, Plaintiff has failed to comply with Sections 14.004 and 14.006(f) of the Act.
2. The Court finds that Plaintiff's claims lack an arguable basis in law or fact, as they are based on vague and conclusory allegations without specific factual support. The petition fails to articulate a coherent legal theory or factual narrative that would support the claims against the Defendants.
3. Any and all claims related to Plaintiff's criminal proceedings accrued in either 2013 to 2015.
4. The petition does not demonstrate irreparable harm, inadequacy of monetary damages, or a likelihood of success on the merits.

5. Plaintiff has a documented history of filing frivolous lawsuits, with more than five pro se cases dismissed as frivolous within the last seven years. This pattern of behavior justified the designation to prevent further misuse of the judicial system.
6. This Court warned Plaintiff that this case would be dismissed for want of prosecution if he failed to serve Defendants. Defendant Metts is the only defendant to have been served or appear in this matter.

THE COURT HOLDS:

1. Plaintiff's failure to comply with Sections 14.004 and 14.006(f) of the Act requires dismissal of his suit.
2. The Court finds that Plaintiff's claims are frivolous under Section 14.003 of the Act.
3. Any and all claims related to Plaintiff's criminal proceedings from 2013 to 2015 are barred by the applicable two year statute of limitations.
4. Plaintiff failed to establish any element necessary to obtain injunctive relief.
5. The Plaintiff meets the criteria for designation as a vexatious litigant under Section 11.054 of the Act.
6. Plaintiff failed to prosecute his claims against the unserved Defendants.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED

1. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss is GRANTED. All claims brought by Plaintiff Roy Wayne Jackson, Jr. against Defendants are DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.
2. Plaintiff Roy Wayne Jackson, Jr. is designated as a VEXATIOUS LITIGANT pursuant to Section 11.054 of the Act.
3. Plaintiff is prohibited from filing any new litigation in a court of this state without obtaining permission from the appropriate local administrative judge.

4. Plaintiff's request for injunctive relief is denied.
5. The Clerk of the Court is directed to provide a copy of this Order to the Office of Court Administration for inclusion in the list of vexatious litigants.
6. Plaintiff's claims against the unserved Defendants are dismissed for want of prosecution.

This Order is a Final Judgment, it disposes of all causes of action and parties, is final, and is appealable.
