- Prepares special reports or analysis to monitor and evaluate compliance with case disposition time frames.
- Prepares, interprets, and disseminates information about the child support courts and related programs.
- Prepares correspondence, reports, forms, and documents for child support cases.
- Coordinates court dates, room availability, and court reporter availability with appropriate parties, as necessary.
- Develop, coordinate, and maintain the record-keeping and filing system of the court.
- Serves as the primary point of contact with the child support court judge's office.
- Maintains court records and ensures appropriate records are retained according to assigned retention period.
- Assists judges with court proceedings, including assisting with the recording of some proceedings.
- Communicates effectively with judges, court personnel, public, lawyers, staff, and others.
- Assists in the development of court guidelines, proceedings, and standards for achieving court goals.
- Maintain and update the court's electronic case management system.
- May assist in operating and controlling remote court hearing software.
- May supervise the work of others.
- Performs related work as assigned and complies with all OCA policies.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Two years of college. May substitute full-time experience in a related field as described in the essential functions below for the required education on a year-for-year basis.
- Two years of experience in an administrative or office environment or supporting legal or judicial personnel.

- Proficient in the use of computer equipment, word processing and spreadsheet software, and automated systems.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Graduation from an accredited four-year college or university.
- Experience with legal and technical terminology, use of business English and grammar, coordinating court proceedings, and processing and maintaining legal records.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities (KSAs):

- Working knowledge of office practices and administrative procedures in the legal/judicial or related field.
- Knowledge of child support cases.
- Skill in the use of computer equipment, word processing software, spreadsheet software, case management software, and videoconferencing software.

Employment Conditions:

- Regular attendance required.
- Travel is required.
- Sit for long periods of time.
- Operate office equipment and computer systems.
- Adhere to Code of Judicial Conduct pertaining to the activities of court personnel.
- Requires some lifting, up to 20 pounds.
