ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR PREFILING ORDER
PURSUANT TO TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE § 11.101

On this day, the Court considered Defendant Joshua Lee Youngblood's Motion for Prefiling Order Pursuant to Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 11.101.

The Court considered the Motion, the evidence presented, the public court records and dockets of which the Court has taken judicial notice under Texas Rule of Evidence 201—including Cause No. 26DCV359346, Cause No. 23DFAM340911, and Third Court of Appeals Cause Nos. 03-25-00998-CV, 03-25-01037-CV, 03-26-00355-CV, and 03-26-00627-CV—and the arguments of the parties.

MR

~~FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW~~

1. On April 20, 2026, this Court entered an order declaring Plaintiff, Veronica R. Youngblood, a VEXATIOUS LITIGANT pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.054(2).
2. Plaintiff failed to furnish the court-ordered statutory security of $9,000.00 by the June 1, 2026 deadline.
3. ~~Subsequent to the entry of the April 20, 2026 Order, Plaintiff Veronica R. Youngblood has continued an unrelenting pattern of vexatious and unmeritorious litigation activity, including repeatedly submitting frivolous pro se motions and petitions in Cause No. 23DFAM340911 and initiating repeated, unsuccessful original appellate proceedings in the Third Court of Appeals.~~
4. Entry of a prefiling order under Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.101 is warranted and necessary to protect the judiciary and Defendant from ongoing, unmeritorious harassment and unnecessary expense.

ORDERS

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendant's Motion for Prefiling Order is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.101(a), that Plaintiff VERONICA R. YOUNGBLOOD is hereby PROHIBITED from filing, pro se, any new litigation, claims, petitions, motions, or original proceedings in any court in the State of Texas without first obtaining written permission from the Local Administrative Judge of the judicial district or county in which she intends to file.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.101(b), that a person who disobeys this Order is subject to contempt of court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.102, that the Local Administrative Judge shall permit the filing of a new litigation only if it appears to the judge that the proposed litigation has merit and has not been filed for the purpose of harassment or delay.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.104, that the District Clerk of Bell County SHALL transmit a copy of this Prefiling Order to the Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System (OCA) no later than the 30th day after the date this Order is signed for inclusion on the official statewide Vexatious Litigant List.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the District Clerk of Bell County SHALL update and flag the party record of Veronica R. Youngblood in the court's electronic filing and management system to enforce Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code § 11.103, which prohibits the clerk from accepting any new pro se litigation or unauthorized filings from a vexatious litigant subject to a prefiling order without written authorization from the Local Administrative Judge.

WARNING: A PERSON SUBJECT TO A PREFILING ORDER UNDER CHAPTER 11 OF THE TEXAS CIVIL PRACTICE AND REMEDIES CODE WHO FILES A PRO SE LITIGATION WITHOUT WRITTEN PERMISSION FROM THE APPROPRIATE LOCAL ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE IS SUBJECT TO CONTEMPT OF COURT, PUNISHABLE BY FINE, INCARCERATION IN THE COUNTY JAIL, OR BOTH.

SIGNED on this _____ day of _____, 2026. September 4, 2026
